The Hurlet

We use the latest and most environmentally advanced cremation systems and we offset our fuel carbon, and we only use renewably sourced electricity.

Welcome to The Hurlet Crematorium

We offer all the love, compassion, and respect due to you when you lose someone special, in a modern setting designed for comfort, space and light.

Our professional team offers a compassionate service designed to ensure every life story can be told. We want to make every service perfect for you in what can be a very difficult time, ensuring families and friends are comfortable, that they have the right choice of the right music, and that you can play visual tributes or dress our beautiful ceremony hall in any way you wish. There is no sense of being rushed here at The Hurlet our services are on the hour, we are easy to find and we have lots of parking space. Our building is designed to ensure comfort, privacy and respect.

The Hurlet Crematorium is set within 15-acres of open countryside, offering panoramic views across serene hills and countryside from our large Ceremony Hall window. We truly think that it is the most perfect location in which to hold a celebration of life and funeral service. Our building is light, comfortable and designed around the needs of families facing a difficult time

In our new memorial garden, we offer a peaceful place for quiet contemplation alongside natural habitats that attract butterflies and bumble bees, through to deer and beautiful birds of prey. Familles can come and reflect in the tranquillity of our gardens through the changing seasons. In a quiet, unspoilt area we have created a communal space in which ashes can be placed in a beautiful and natural setting.

We use the latest and most environmentally advanced systems and we offset our fuel carbon, and we only use renewably sourced electricity.

We also Plant a Tree for Every Family and Every Service that we hold within our extensive grounds.

The Hurlet Crematorium was created to provide higher levels of care and sensitivity at a time of need in a more modern and befitting setting. We provide experienced help and guidance to ensure that every family can hold the right funeral service for them.
